

Farm Groups Face Fight in Congress

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Rival farm groups are rounding up reinforcements for battles over farm legislation in this presidential election year.

The American Farm Bureau Federation has deployed its top leaders to meetings in agricultural areas to enlist support for its policies which seek a gradual withdrawal of government from agriculture. By early February, the organization expects to have held allies in virtually every state.

Its rival organizations hold meetings in Washington this week to win backing for stronger farm programs expected to be recommended by the Johnson administration for cotton, wheat, dairy products and possibly some other commodities. Active in these meetings are the National Grange, the National Farmers Union, the Missouri Farm Association and the National Farmers Organization.

The Farm Bureau expects a

To Attend Girl Scout Course

Mrs. Truman Hobbs of Texarkana, president of Conifer Girl Scout Council, left Monday for Poughkeepsie, New York, to attend a training course at Vassar College.

The Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. selected Mrs. Hobbs to serve as a member of a national corps of trainers. On completion of the training at Vassar, Mrs. Hobbs will return to Texarkana to begin her work as a trainer of Boards of Directors. She will train three Boards in Region V each year for the years 1964-65-66.

This is a special project of the Girl Scouts National Organization and Mrs. Hobbs was selected to be a member of the first group to be trained in this special area. One of the three instructors will be Harlegh B. Treche, Dean of the School of Social Workers at the University of Connecticut.

Old Worker Award to Be Thursday

Hope Business and Professional Women's Club will be host to the local Employment Security Division staff this Thursday night. The honor is occasioned by the Hope Employment Service office having won the Gus Blass Older Worker Award for 1963. Gus Blass III, Chairman of the Governor's Commission on Aging, and donor of the trophy, is scheduled to make the presentation.

From inception of the Older Worker (over 45) Program it has been sponsored by the R. & P. W. clubs of the state. They have worked closely and tirelessly with people in the local Employment Security Division offices to promote placement of the "over 45" persons in the labor market. During fiscal year 1963 the Hope E. S. D. office showed a 3 1/2% gain over 1962 in placement of older workers.

Basis for the award is on percentage gain, diversification of classifications, ratio of placement to active application file, and the effort of local staff in promoting the Older Worker Program.

Mr. Blass, well known Little Rock business man and civic leader, has devoted much time and interest in promotion of work for the "over 45" applicant. He is much in demand throughout the state as a speaker whenever there is a meeting concerning aging. He participated in the President's White House Conference on Aging and helped to inaugurate the program in Arkansas.

The Gus Blass Award was initiated in 1960 to encourage local public employment offices to perform outstanding service for employment of the older worker.

Mrs. Travis Ward, president of the Hope B. & P. W. Club, announced the dinner meeting for 7:00 p.m. at the Diamond Banquet Room. Following the presentation of the award by Mr. Blass, club members will have their regular program with Mrs. Mary Jess Lankford as guest speaker. Mrs. Lankford is immediate past president of the Arkansas B. & P. W. Clubs and is E. S. D. Special Technician for placement of the older worker.

Besides Mr. Blass and Mrs. Lankford, other out-of-town guests will include John Caras, E. S. D. Field Supervisor for this area.

Teddy Jones is manager of the Hope office of the Employment Security Division. Other members of the staff are: Mrs. Sue Sommerville, Miss Nell Moxley, and J. T. Bowden, Paul McClellan, Herman Smith, L. B. Cook and A. B. Martin.

Music Club in January Program

The annual January luncheon and Opera Listening program was enjoyed by the Friday Music Club Saturday, January 4. Mrs. Haskell Jones and Mrs. V. R. Herndon, Jr., were hostesses for the luncheon served in the Jones home at Oakhaven.

A table overlaid with a yellow ruffled cloth and centered with amber-colored hurricane lamps held the potluck meal. There were 18 club members and one guest, Mrs. Bob Moers. After luncheon, the group went to Klipsch Associates, where Mrs. Moers played taped highlights of "Rigoletto" by Verdi using the famous Klipsch equipment in the Listening Studio.

Letters on Star's P.O. Position

EDITOR'S NOTE — Wide distribution through the Associated Press of The Star's editorial attacking municipal federal aid and the new Post office project for Hope has produced the following letters to The Editor. The letter from Silver Spring, Md., a Washington, D.C. suburb, is based on a clipping from the Washington Post.

Editor The Star: Congratulations to you on this decision — but may I please make a suggestion?

Why don't you (instead of completely rejecting the money) request that it be spent on your public elementary schools in order to bring them up to standard? That would be doing your town a great service, for surely there is no greater investment one can make than in the education of young children.

Editor The Star: I read the recent story in your paper (AP story and picture, Arkansas Gazette, Jan. 4) about your beginning a campaign to stop construction of a new post office in Hope. I wish you every success in this needed endeavor.

I am absolutely ashamed of the City of Little Rock and its continuous grab for federal funds, especially in the Urban Renewal area. It is purely a selfish enterprise and, unfortunately, our businessmen who criticize federal expenditures approve of these wasteful things feeling that some of the money will stick to their fingers. Congratulations and best wishes.

Editor The Star: I read with real joy this morning the account from the Memphis Commercial Appeal of how the town of Hope, Ark., has recently rejected $250,000 in federal funds for street repairs. Those of us who deplore the tendency nowadays to let the government do everything for us that we ought to be doing for ourselves really appreciate reports of this kind—that show we do have some real people of integrity and self-respect in this beloved land of liberty.

America is fast becoming a socialistic state, and only people with a sense of individual responsibility who are not forever looking to someone for a handout can save our country from this sad state. People are beginning to wise up to fact that federal help brings with it federal control, and, besides that, money that is spent can always be spent more efficiently at the local level, since the ordinary man is going to have to pay through taxes every cent that is spent anyhow, federal or not. Personally, I am against piling up tremendous debt for my children and grandchildren to have to cope with. I would like to leave them the same liberty which I have enjoyed.

My I commend the people of Hope, and especially their publishers.

New Year's Behind You? '64 Has 1,183 Occasions to Celebrate, Says Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Fill up the punch bowl again and let the welkin ring.

If you thought the season of celebration ended when you threw away your Christmas tree, you got the message all wrong.

The year 1964 promises to be just one big long party. There are a record 1,183 special occasions to observe, according to the social gazette in such matters—Chase Calendar of Annual Events, published by the Apple Tree Press of Flint, Mich.

Its editors have figured, as a matter of fact, that if you actually observed consecutively all the festivals and birthdays coming up in 1964, it would take you 29 years, 10 months, 4 weeks and

Something for All, Is LBJ's Idea

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson isn't missing many angles in proposing programs with the broadest popular appeal.

In one form or another his State of the Union message to Congress Wednesday is expected to contain proposals that have something for practically everybody.

The message is going to represent a combination of three presidents' programs: Roosevelt, Kennedy and Johnson.

Roosevelt or Kennedy would have been just about unbeatable, if either was running in the 1964 presidential race. So carrying the banners of his two popular predecessors should be a big help to Johnson.

He has endorsed the big Kennedy programs still stymied in Congress. He will propose some of his own, reflecting views of his idol, Roosevelt.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Democratic leader in the Senate, says Johnson will outline specific proposals attacking poverty and probably will call for increased spending on domestic programs.

Programs for the poor are in the direct Roosevelt tradition. Kennedy offered them, too.

In his State of the Union message last year Kennedy noted that 32 million Americans "still live on the outskirts of poverty."

There were 13 million unemployed when Roosevelt took office in 1933 and he noted that one-third of the nation was ill-fed, ill-clothed, and ill-housed. About 4 million people are still unemployed.

Mansfield indicated Johnson

2 Accidents Reported by City Police

A three-car incident at 115 S. Main St. Monday morning resulted in one personal injury and heavy vehicle damage and charges against one of the drivers, city police reported.

Mrs. Andrea Kay McMurrugh of Hope was given first aid at Hempstead Memorial hospital. Police said R. E. Cooper of Hope stopped his 1956 Buick in front of Mrs. McMurrugh's 1962 Buick, and Donald Thomas Sutton of Port Arthur, Texas, driving a 1953 Jeep station wagon, ran into the back of Mrs. McMurrugh's car.

Officers Jarvis and Clark charged Mr. Sutton with following a vehicle too closely.

Sunday afternoon James Faulker of Hope backed his 1955 Ford into a 1962 Thunderbird driven by Jimmy Don Rosenbaum of Fulton, in front of the Phillips 66 service station on West Third St. Officers Clark and Shirley investigated but made no charges.

Rail Crisis Nears; Time Has Run Out

By W. B. RAGSDALE JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — After a six-month cooling off period and forced settlement of two issues, the railroad work rules dispute appears to be headed for another crisis late next month.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz conceded as much Monday when he announced that the federal government once again is stepping in to try to mediate the dispute, now nearly five years old.

Wirtz, Assistant Secretary of Labor James J. Reynolds and Chairman Francis A. O'Neill Jr. of the National Mediation Board met today in closed session with the railroads and five operating brotherhoods.

Wirtz met late Monday with railroad representatives, then the unions, and, finally, with both sides. Later he explained that the talks centered on "making the best use of the time that lies ahead of us."

On Feb. 25 a congressional deadline for settlement of the so-called secondary issues—issues not settled last November by compulsory arbitration—runs out and a nationwide rail strike could begin.

The issues involved in the current negotiations include such topics as wage structure, certain road and yard jobs, interdivisional runs, use of self-propelled equipment, night shift differentials, holiday pay and expenses away from home.

Wirtz hedged on any prediction that an agreement could be reached and said he hadn't talked to the negotiators about how much progress they had made in their weeks of bargaining.

There were strong indications earlier from Chicago that progress has been slight.

H. E. Gilbert, president of the Independent Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, told a news conference there would be a nationwide strike unless the railroads relented on their insistence on what he said would mean "severe wage reductions."

Boasts Cuba Invasion This Year

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—An anti-Castro organization headed by Manuel Artime, 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion leader, said today it "possesses the means to carry to Cuba a freedom war in 1964."

Cesar Baro, second in command of the Revolutionary Recovery Movement, said, "We have found the needed support."

There have been reports that the movement has military units in Central America.

New Year Lucky for Pair Hunters

New Year's was a lucky day for two deer hunters in Hope, Jimmy Jones, Jr. and Al Page, who were hunting at Yellow Creek Club. Jimmy bagged an 11-pointer which weighed about 250 pounds, and Al got a 9-point buck. It was the first for Jimmy and the third one for Al, but both agreed it was a fine way for a hunter to start the new year.

Australian Wins in Big Lottery

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Peter Pangas, who came to Australia 52 years ago as a poor Greek migrant, won the $224,000 first prize in a government lottery today.

Pangas, 65, said that two years ago he had saved enough money to buy a cafe in Sydney, then won $13,440 in another government lottery.

"Now the first thing I want to do is to sell the business," he said.

Sukarno in Philippines Seeking Aid

MANILA, the Philippines (AP)—Indonesia's President Sukarno arrived in Manila today seeking Philippine support for his campaign against Malaysia.

Sukarno's five-day visit got off to a tardy start. There was an unexplained delay in his night, and Philippine President Diosdado Macapagal waited nearly three hours at Manila International Airport.

Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio blamed the delay on security precautions. He said Sukarno's jet made a stop in central Java, but he offered no explanation.

The Manila Chronicle reported earlier it had received a telephoned death threat against Sukarno. The call resulted in tightened security at the airport.

While Sukarno has vowed to smash Malaysia, his foreign minister told newsmen the two presidents will try "to find some way out of this impasse."

Although the Philippines refuses to recognize the British-sponsored federation because of its claim on the Malaysian state of Sabah, Macapagal has been trying to steer a middle course between Malaysia and Indonesia in hopes of mediating between them.

Student Faces Threat Charge

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—Russell McLarry, charged with threatening the life of President Kennedy, has asked to explain the utterance to a federal grand jury.

The Arlington State College student is free on $2,500 bond. The incident allegedly occurred before Kennedy's Nov. 22 assassination in Dallas, and McLarry called it a misunderstood joke.

If the jury consents, McLarry will probably appear Wednesday.

2nd Session of Congress Is Opened

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 88th Congress opened its second session today under the multiple pressures of a campaign year, a new administration striking out on new paths, and a mountainous backlog of unfinished business.

A few hours before the gavels banged in the House and Senate chambers, President Johnson went over with Democratic leaders from the Capitol his first state of the union message, a communication he will deliver in person at a joint session at noon Wednesday.

The party chiefs were close-mouthed on details after their weekly breakfast session at the White House, but agreed the message is "excellent" and "quite to the point." House Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts said he thinks the American people will respond most favorably.

There was informed speculation that the message will contain proposals for a many-pronged attack on poverty through specialized education and other measures. The new chief executive pledged himself during his work-and-play Christmas holiday in Texas to give high priority to a drive in that direction.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana told newsmen at the White House that the message is "quite to the point in the interest of the American people domestically speaking."

Mansfield said some of this will be channeled into housing, unemployment assistance, educational and other programs aimed at improving living conditions and the level of employment among the nation's poor.

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Kirkens of Illinois said in a separate interview it remains to be seen whether Johnson can trim enough out of military outlays to finance such programs without breaking through the President's self-imposed limitation on expenditures.

"I have told the President that if he comes up with a Texas-size budget, he is going to be in trouble in Congress," Dirksen said. "On the other hand, if he cuts military expenditures to the point where Congress thinks national security is threatened, some of this money may be restored."

The second session of the 88th Congress gets under way at noon today, with indications that many members intend to prolong their holiday and not return until next week.

The House had before it a Senate-passed bill to rename the national cultural center in honor of the late John F. Kennedy and provide some federal financing for it. The Senate had no major business scheduled.

In his personally delivered message Wednesday, Johnson is expected to expand on a theme he has been preaching for years—that the nation cannot afford to "surrender to poverty" just to "serve the ends of political bookkeeping."

A former school teacher, Johnson has laid heavy stress on education for the unskilled and those with skills outdated by automation who are, he said, thus "confined in an airtight case of poverty."

Johnson has given every sign that he will back to the hilt proposals Kennedy made for an $11 billion tax cut, enactment of a civil rights legislative program and for action on health care for the elderly financed through Social Security taxes.

Rehabilitation Meeting at Spa

The Southern Area "C" Rehabilitation Conference of the American Legion Auxiliary, made up of 13 states including Arkansas, will be held January 8-9 at the Velda Rose Motel in Hot Springs. The program theme is "Strengthening Every Rehabilitation Value Including Community Endeavor."

Representing Leslie Huddleston Unit 12 of Hope will be Mrs. Joe Jones, Junior Activities co-chairman, Department of Arkansas, and Mrs. Fred Formby, Department Americanism chairman. All American Legion Auxiliary members are invited to attend this conference.

will ask increased spending for unemployment.

And the White House announced today that the President's wife, Lady Bird, will make a trip Saturday to coal mining areas in Pennsylvania where unemployed miners are being retrained for new jobs under a government project.

Johnson is for a tax cut, which should be popular with practically everybody, rich and poor, except budget-balancers.

He is for a civil rights program, which is what Negroes want, although Southern Democrats in Congress are ready to try to block one.

But while people in the South would benefit by other programs in Johnson's kit.

He is for medical care for the aged, meaning those over 65, of whom there are 17 million in the nation, all of voting age.

He is for federal aid to education, a Kennedy program which would exclude Catholic schools.

While this might anger some Catholics it would hardly be unpopular with most parents whose children are in public schools.

Still hanging fire in Congress is a Kennedy program of youth training and employment.

While unskilled jobs are dwindling, new jobs are requiring more training and higher skills. About 42 per cent of students drop out before finishing high school.

But, while such programs have a kind of universal appeal because so many different interests would benefit, offering such a broad dose of them at this session of Congress is optimistic, to put it mildly.

Just last Sunday both Mansfield and Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Republican leader in the Senate, said they didn't expect the record this year to be "quantitative."

That is a public relations way of saying they didn't expect a lot of programs to go through—but they thought some of the big ones might.

They talked of spending perhaps several weeks in the Senate arguing about a tax cut, starting in February, and even more weeks contending with a Southern filibuster on civil rights.

That wouldn't leave much time for much else—like medical care and federal aid to education—in a Congress where most of the members have to stand for re-election this year and want to get home early.

Extension of Duck Hunting Is Refused

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The U.S. Department of the Interior has refused a request by the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission for a 10-day extension of the Arkansas duck hunting season.

The request was made by commission director Nelson Cox after a commission meeting last Thursday.

Cox attributed the Arkansas request to the state's greatest water shortage in history, a 13-day ban on all hunting, and a hard freeze and heavy snow which "have contributed to greatly reduced duck hunting opportunities" in Arkansas.

Cox also pointed out that the state had voluntarily reduced shooting hours by one-half because of the water shortage.

In a telegram, Frank Briggs, assistant Interior Secretary, said the department does not feel that weather conditions constitute a valid reason for season changes.

A Game and Fish Commission spokesman said the request was the first ever by Arkansas to ask an extension of duck season for any reason.

Bowling in a Plane Is Not So Good

By FRANCIS STILLEY Associated Press Writer

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—It isn't easy to go bowling in a jet plane at 25,000 feet and 500 miles an hour.

The clouds keep getting in your way. They bump, and no matter what you think the balls do, they don't.

Two national bowling champions found that out Monday. They tried the first—and without doubt the last—flying bowling alley in history.

It was a full-sized alley set up on a new jet cargo plane. It was complete with an automatic pin-setting machine, side channels to keep stray balls from going off through . . . well, er . . . Champion Dick Weber of St. Louis stepped up and nearly was blinded by the floodlights and flashbulbs of news photographers aboard a flight to Dallas from New York.

He let go of the ball and down went every pin for a strike.

"I feel like I'm walking on air," he said afterward.

Then came the turn of Sylvia Wene of Philadelphia. She got a spare amid cheers which drowned out the whine of the jet engines.

"Wow!" exclaimed Miss Wene.

Too bad things couldn't have kept up that way. But some days just aren't fit for flying bowling.

"I'll try to get a smoother altitude," came an intercom announcement from Capt. Russell Sapp, the plane's pilot and a fair hand in the bowling lanes himself.

While the airborne alley was bucking around, Weber went forward and kiddingly said to Sapp:

"Hey, captain, don't you like me? Every time I throw the ball it goes thataway."

With a laugh the captain countered: "You mean I'm ruining your score?"

Something did, for sure.

When the game was over after various delays Miss Wene had a final count of 146, with one strike and six spares. Weber had 144, three strikes and three spares.

The flight, dubbed Operation AstroBowl, was a publicity stunt staged by American Airlines to demonstrate how big its new cargo planes are.

American Machine and Foundry, which makes bowling alley equipment, joined in the gimmick and sweated through four days getting the alley and pinsetting machine pinned down in the plane.

It also turns out that the World Series of bowling, as it is called, will take place in Dallas Jan. 15 to 26.

Bald Eagles Find Fishing Is Good

WEST GLACIER, Mont. (AP)—Bald eagles are swarming to Glacier National Park to feast on spawning land-locked salmon.

W. E. Welch, a park ranger, said he counted 352 bald eagles in a five-mile stretch along McDonald Creek and the middle fork of the Flathead River.

The latest official census lists a total of 3,807 bald eagles in the United States exclusive of Alaska.

Indians Win Contest in Mississippi

CLEVELAND, Miss. (AP) — Arkansas State College came up with its sixth basketball victory of the season Tuesday night when the Indians defeated Delta State College of Cleveland, Miss. 70-55 at Cleveland.

Jerry Rook led scoring by hitting for 30 points for the Indians. Arkansas State led most of the game and had a halftime edge of 32-30. Paul Fugate picked up 22 points for Delta State.

The victory gave the Indians a 6-3 record. Delta State got a 3-6 record on the loss.

Mikita Puts Cash Ahead of Clippings

MONTREAL (AP) — Stan Mikita, the Chicago Black Hawks' center-ice star, is a fellow who watches his bank balance more closely than his press clippings.

Mikita, who plays second fiddle to teammate Bobby Hull in the ballyhoo department, will settle for a big payday anytime.

He forfeited his spot in the National Hockey League All-Star Game last October to hold out for a 1963-'64 raise. Last week he picked up a $500 bonus for leading the NHL's point-getters but the season's halfway mark.

The Czechoslovakian-born sparkplug of Chicago's Scooter Line took the cash award by virtue of a four-goal edge on Montreal's Jean Beliveau, who tied Mikita in total points.

Johnson City, Tenn. (AP) — One 16-year-old Washington county is dead and another has been charged as a result of a car-motorcycle crash at an intersection on Highway 11-E just outside Johnson City Sunday.

State Trooper Frank Richardson said.

Richardson said Julian was cited for driving without a license and will also be named on a technical charge of manslaughter.

Gonzalez said thieves pried open a window vent to enter his locked car on a down street.

Kennedy Pix and Cameras Stolen

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Thieves broke into Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez' car Sunday and took $450 in cameras and undeveloped photographs of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Recent film of President Lyndon B. Johnson also was taken.

Brandon to Seek Sen. Fagan Seat

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Pulaski County Rep. Jim Brandon said today he would run for the state Senate seat left vacant by the death of Sen. Ellis Fagan.

Another Pulaski County legislator, Rep. Ben Allen, said he has been receiving encouragement to run but has not decided whether he will file.

Brandon, 31, is serving his second term in the House. He has advocated a constitutional convention to rewrite the Arkansas Constitution.

Brandon is the first candidate for the post which is expected to draw a large field before the filing deadline April 29.

State Sen. Morrell Gathright of Pine Bluff, filed Monday for re-election to Pos. 1 in District 15, which is composed of Jefferson and Lincoln Counties. He is seeking his fourth term.

Indiana's Penalty Is Relieved

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association amended its sanctions against Indiana University today to permit Indiana athletes to participate in trials affecting Olympic sports. Indiana has been on probation for four years.

Indiana was slapped down April 27, 1960 for violation of recruiting practices.

This has ruled out bowl games.

Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, said the latest concession was made in the interest of United States' effort in the Olympic Games at Tokyo next Oct. 10-25.

Thus, Indiana will be permitted to send athletes into tryouts picking personnel for the Tokyo games.

Sports particularly involved include swimming, basketball, gymnastics and wrestling. Indiana is strong in all four.

Gets 5 Years for Narcotics

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Charles Craig, 58, a Little Rock repairman of coin operated machines, was sentenced in federal district court Monday to five years in prison on narcotics sales charges.

Craig, who also worked at Hot Springs, was convicted Dec. 2 of selling 10 Dilaudid tablets without a prescription and in a package without tax - paid stamps.

Judge Gordon B. Young postponed sentencing until Monday at the request of the defendant. Craig was released on $5,000 appeal bond after sentencing.

Dilaudid is used medically for the relief of pain.

We once read an article about certain city store going out of business. They had advertised a huge clearance sale, and on the first day a crowd of 50,000 people showed up and only 12,000 could possibly get in the store. It took 40 cops to police the situation, women fainted, kids screamed, and pickpockets picked pockets and confusion reigned supreme. Nearby stores reaped a harvest from the spill-over of customers.

We have dreamed many times of having a shop full of people clamoring to buy but never in our wildest imagination have we thought of even five hundred at once! We aren't even asking for half that many, but we would like to have a record crowd attending our January clearance sale.

We are closing out ALL winter merchandise at prices you can afford. Dresses & Suits ranging in price from $10.95 to $25.95 are now selling for $7.00, $8.00, $9.00, $11.00, $13.00 and $15.00. $10 reduction on all garment priced at $29.95 up.

There are sizes and styles for EVERY woman, including petites and juniors.

We invite you to see the sportswear on sale, sweaters, skirts, blouses and jumpers... all from nationally known manufacturers, all reduced to SELL!

All fall and winter millinery, by Fisk, Parkridge, Sue Lee & Mr. John Jr. — at $3.00 & $5.00. At this price you can buy several.

'The Week That Was' Is TV Show

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "That Was The Week That Was" makes its NBC network debut as weekly half-hour topical review next Friday and it may prove to be television's most daring experiment of the year.

Marshall Jamison, Broadway play director who has charge of the series, admits the show, which will base its humor and satire on the news of the day, will not have the mass appeal of a program such as the "Beverly Hillsbillies."

"That Was The Week That Was" is an adaptation of a brash English program. The original was so irreverent that it has been discontinued until after the British election at least.

The American program will be live and Jamison expects much of its material will be found in the world of politics.

"Things change so fast you never can be sure what will be usable," Jamison said. "When we did the hour-long show in November, we had a whole section on the Bobby Baker thing that went out."

"We were planning to do a song called 'Nobody's Mad at LBJ' in our opening show next week but now it seems to me a lot of people are furious at him for one thing or another. Maybe we can change the lyrics a little."

"Of course, to do this sort of thing our opinion has to be slanted one way or another — and I don't mean politically slanted, necessarily, just off-beat. The whole purpose of topical humor and satire is to have a point of view that surprises and stimulates. I think that if we were guilty of anything in the first show, it was hitting the reactionaries too strongly. There's just as much funny material about the left-wingers that we will be getting at."

WHEN IS AN OLD MAID NOT AN OLD MAID
By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: How does the unmarried woman deal intelligently with the problem of old maid ridicule and insults without losing her dignity and becoming the very grouch her married acquaintances attempt to make her?

At a church school class session one unmarried woman attended regularly, the teacher said she was really shocked when a lady told her that it is "not just the old maids who are queer. Some of the married women can be 'cranky' and grouchy, too!"

She went on to say she was shocked to think that this woman would compare a married woman to a cranky old maid!

On another occasion, one old maid was asked, "Do you have any friends?" I often wondered. Another was told directly, "I hope you are not offended. This meeting is not geared for you!" All the people I refer to are at least 30 years or older.

My family has taught me to respect people. At this point, Helen, I feel downright hateful. If these cranky wives have been disappointed in their marriage, why should they take it out on those of us whose problems are of a different nature? Life is too short to let these members of the "character demolition crew" kill my interest in life!

But I am concerned for others. They need help. Like woodsmen chopping down a tree, their worst cut deep into the soul and character of whose feet have not sunk into the quicksand of marital unhappiness. — Unmarried and Not Regretting

Dear Unmarried: Being an old maid is a state of mind. Any woman who is dubbed one has only herself to blame. In all likelihood her thinking, appearance and general attitude are dated.

Her kind are kill-joys and it is probably for this reason that those married women of whom you speak draw the line at including "old maids" in their class meetings. However, the type as such is by no means confined to single women. I've known many wives who were spinsters personified.

As I write this, a cousin comes to mind who, in my mother's words, "was born with her overshoes on." Her face was perpetually set in lines of disapproval. She wore high-necked, long-sleeved dresses because she didn't wish "to excite the passions of men." Yet not withstanding these handicaps, she made an excellent marriage. Her husband died young and she pursued her prim, lonely way to the end of a long and healthy, though limited, life. She was in the worst sense of the word a "good" woman.

The surest way for a single woman to avoid being dubbed an old maid is to keep an open mind, be contemporary in thought and dress and cultivate a sense of humor. Think of yourself as a person, not the symbol of a much-dreaded class. I was a single woman for many years but I never thought of myself as an old maid, nor

France to Give Aid U.S. Cut Off

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — France has pledged military and economic aid to its former territory of Cambodia, filling some of the gap left by Cambodia's rejection of U.S. aid.

French Defense Minister Pierre Messmer, speaking at a dinner in his honor Sunday night, said the aid would include tanks, trucks and planes for the Cambodian armed forces and professors for schools.

Cambodia's chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, expressed gratitude that France has decided "to fulfill the role in Asia which its prestige and the present situation make appropriate."

Sihanouk Dec. 13 decided to end U.S. aid to his southeast Asian nation and ordered American military, economic and cultural missions to leave Cambodia by Jan. 15.

Guerrillas Break Into Viet Line

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE
TAN AN, Viet Nam (AP) — An estimated two battalions of Communist guerrillas slipped through encircling South Vietnamese troops before dawn today after battering back a day-long airborne assault.

The Viet Cong sent a wall of machine-gun fire against U.S. helicopters and knocked out an armored personnel car before retreating from their fortifications. The crew of the car was killed by a shell from a recoilless cannon.

American pilots in rocket-firing helicopters believed they killed about 60 guerrillas, although only two bodies were found. One had a Russian rifle. The Viet Cong usually remove the bodies of their dead when they retreat.

The engagement was only 30 miles southwest of Saigon. It was fought in view of passengers in buses and cars along the main north-south highway.

"As usual, they slipped by us last night," a Vietnamese officer said. "We just didn't have enough men to seal them in."

Government troops suffered eight killed and nearly 30 wounded.

It was the third time since New Year's Day that Viet Cong units of battalion strength or more have fought off an attack and escaped.

Red Spy Is Executed in Bulgaria

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LONDON (AP) — The Bulgarian News Agency has reported the execution of Ivan Asen Christof Georgiev, former Bulgarian envoy to the U.N. who confessed he sold military and economic secrets to the American Central Intelligence Agency for $200,000.

The prosecution claimed the envoy spent most of the money on mistresses, including some supplied by the CIA.

Georgiev went on trial in Sofia Dec. 26. He pleaded guilty to selling secrets to the CIA between 1956 and 1961 while serving as counselor on the Bulgarian U.N. delegation in New York and later as an official of various government agencies.

The news service said sentence was carried out after Georgiev's appeal for a pardon was denied. He was sentenced to die before a firing squad.

each judicial district should consist of counties, not a county; and that counties in a district are to be contiguous.

In a motion filed Saturday in the injury suit, Glover also challenged the court's jurisdiction in the case.

If Montgomery Circuit Court does not sustain his motion, Glover said, he will ask for a writ of prohibition from the state Supreme Court.

A novel about BENEDICT ARNOLD by PHILIP VAIL
© 1963 by Philip Vail

THE TWISTED SABER

XXVI
Colonel Livingston was summoned to Washington's headquarters and when he returned to Albany late in December, he found Benedict sitting up in bed.

Livingston opened the leather dispatch case slung over his shoulder. "I've been directed to give you the original of a resolution passed by the Congress."

Benedict unfolded a sheet of parchment. Color rose in his pale cheeks when he read that the Continental Congress had made his appointment to the rank of major general retroactive and that his seniority had been restored.

"Now, then. The verbal message," Benedict's smile disappeared and his eyelids drooped. "The Commander - in - Chief begs a personal favor. Relations between the army and the Congress are strained, and he hopes that no officer, particularly no high-ranking officer, will inflame the bad feelings that already exist."

Livingston moved to the hearth at the far side of the bedchamber and warmed himself before the blazing hickory logs.

Benedict considered the strange request. "When General Washington asks a favor, I accept it as a command—naturally." His voice hardened. "Why does he believe I might desire to write to the Congress, and what reason might I have for inflaming bad feelings, Colonel?"

Livingston took a deep breath. "When I went to Pennsylvania, you asked me to press your claims for reimbursement of funds. I may be at fault—"

"You are one of the most competent men it has ever been my privilege to know," Benedict became grim. "You're trying to tell me that the Congress refuses to pay my claim?"

"If funds were available, I think they'd be inclined to act generously, General."

A review was held in Benedict's honor at Valley Forge. Scores of officers came to the house to shake Benedict's hand, and a number of his old comrades, among them Dan Morgan and Henry Dearborn, were invited to dinner. But at last the festivities came to an end, and Benedict accompanied his superior into the chamber the troops had added to the house as a sewing room for Mrs. Washington. Documents and maps were piled high everywhere.

The Commander - in - Chief smiled. "It's my hope that, when you're strong enough, you can become my deputy in charge of the left wing of the entire army."

"By August, perhaps—" Washington, who seldom laughed aloud, interrupted with an indulgent chuckle. "I'm no surgeon, but you won't be able to mount a horse by then."

"I can't spend my life rotting in New Haven!"

"I have no intention of allowing you to remain idle, Arnold. When I wrote that I had a post to offer you, I had read the report of the surgeons at Albany and I knew you needed a position that would occupy your mind but not tax your physical strength. Would you accept the military governorship of Philadelphia?"

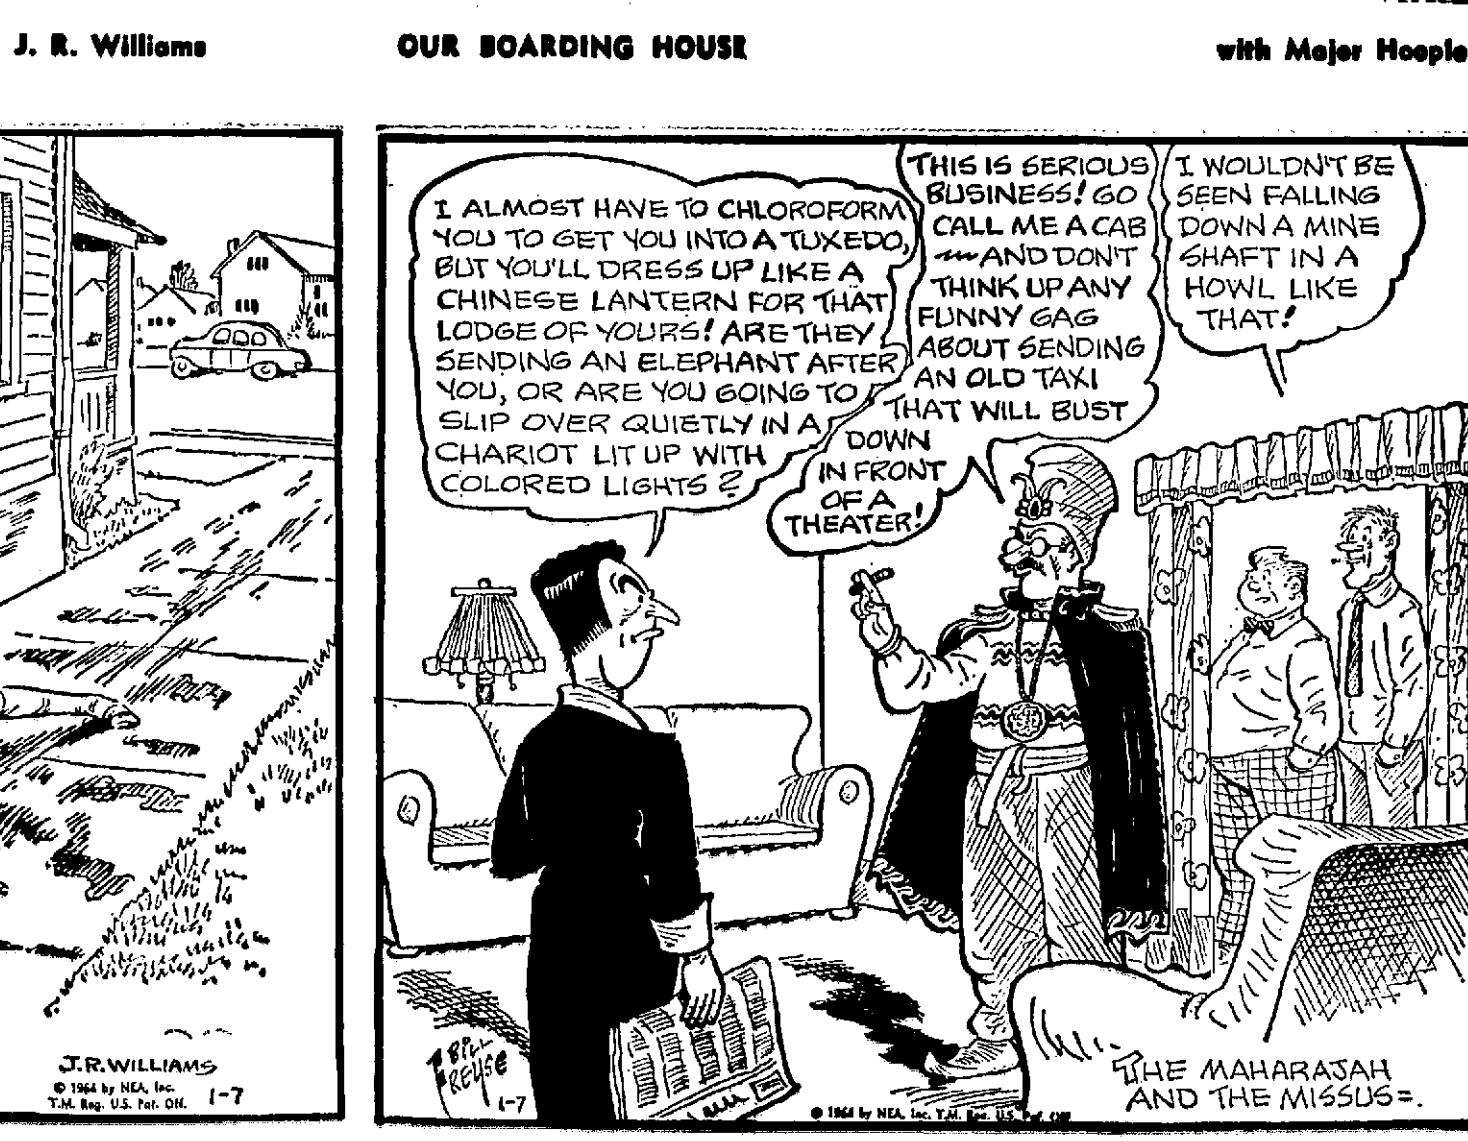

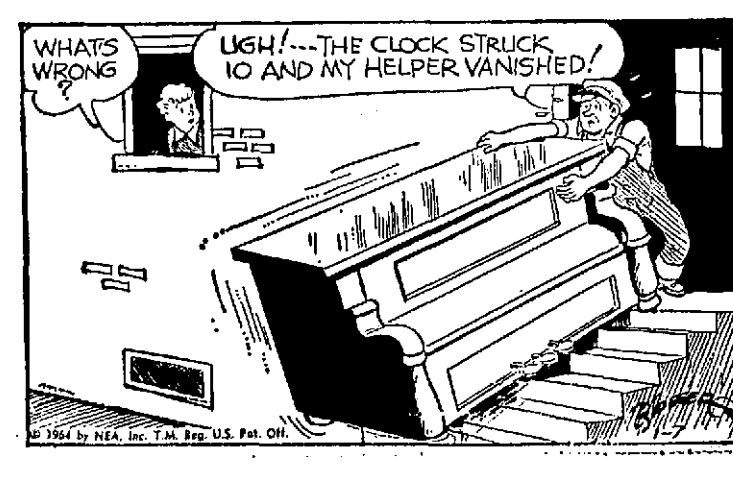

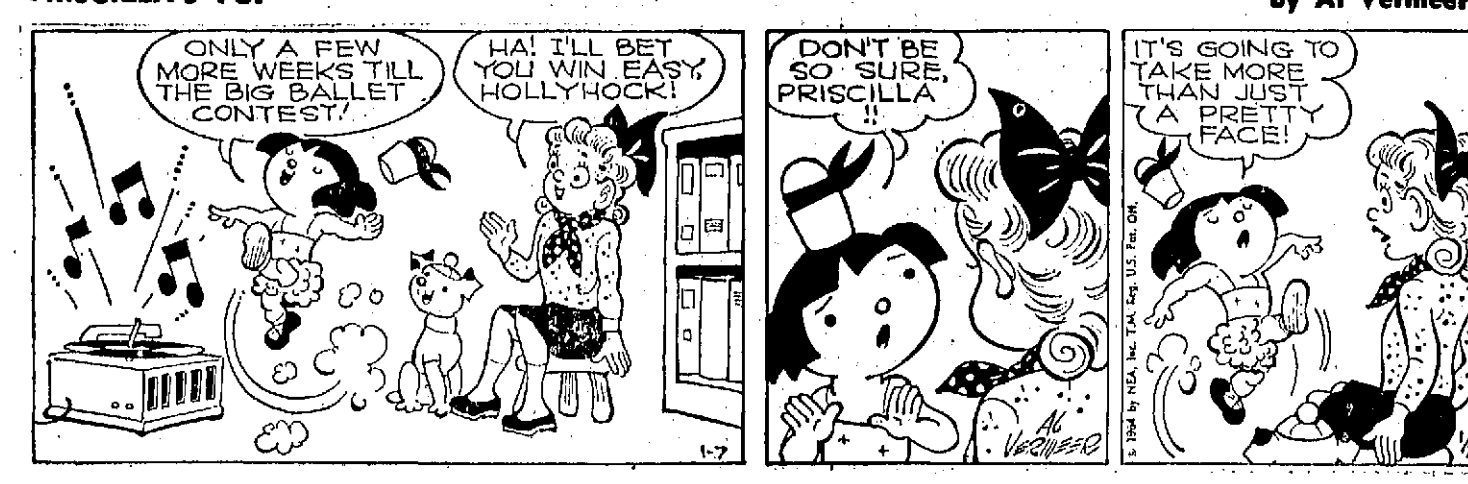

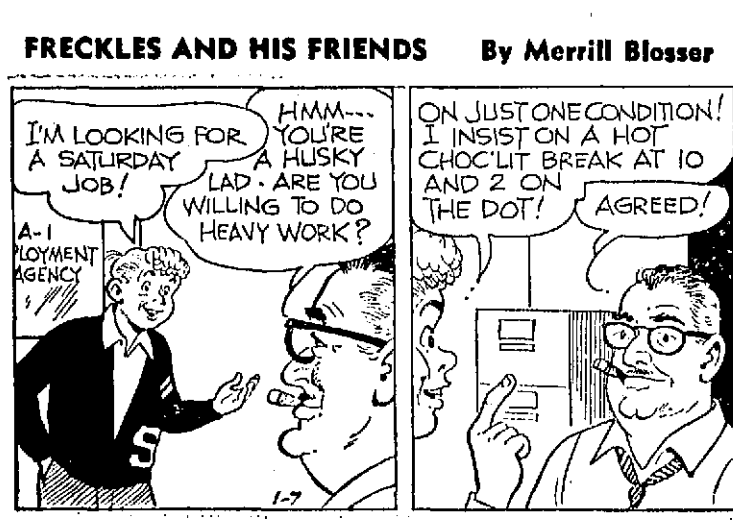

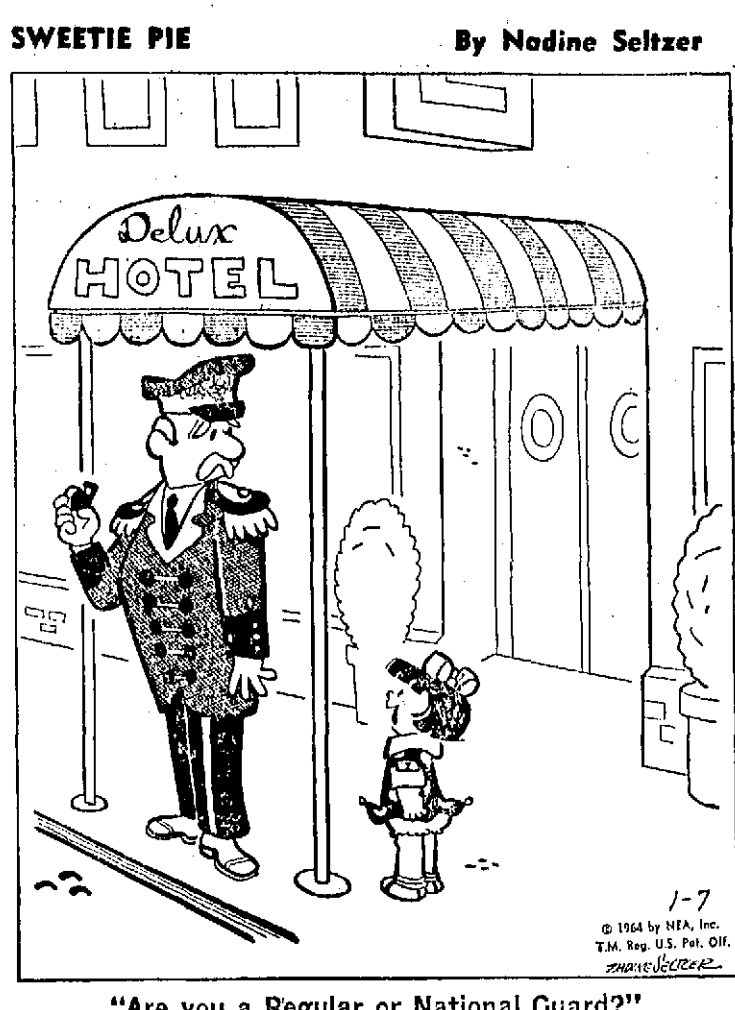

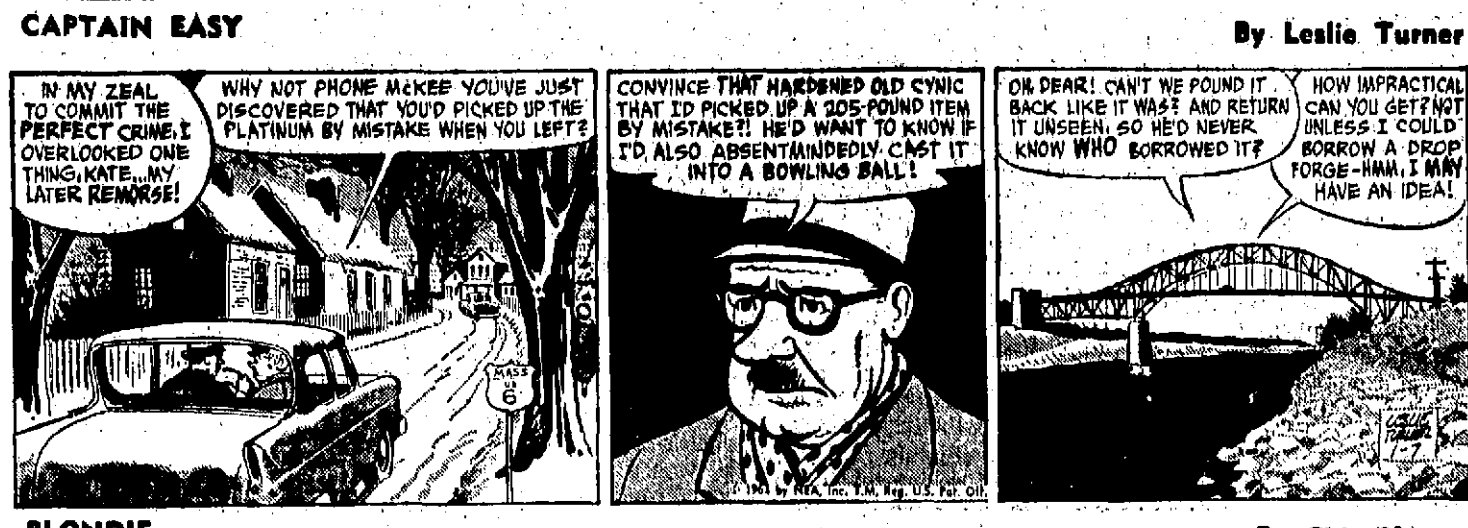

Benedict grinned. "Sir Henry Clinton will have to be dislodged first, sir, and I believe he'll need a strong nudge before he's ready to follow Billy Howe back to England."

Colleges Toe Line; Fewer Penalized

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association still is cracking the whip but some of the sting is gone. "It's not that we're getting soft," Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, said today after chiding five institutions for recruiting violations and relaxing sanctions against a sixth. "It's just that the colleges are behaving better—we are having fewer and fewer major abuses."

The University of Iowa and little Centenary College of Shreveport, La., each drew a one year probation. Alabama and Houston were officially reprimanded, and Washington State got off lightest of all—a word of caution.

At the same time, Indiana University, under a four-year probationary penalty, had its sanctions relaxed so that Indiana athletes might compete in events pointing to the 1964 Olympic Games at Tokyo.

Leniency was the mood of the feared NCAA council, sports policy-making body of some 600 colleges and universities, in disclosing punishment for those members who had not adhered strictly to the rules.

Besides Indiana, New Mexico State, Hardin-Simmons, Dayton and Colorado are major universities which have been slapped with sanctions in recent years. Most of these sanctions end this year.

The University of Iowa was found guilty of the largest number of transgressions—enough to fill a full page of typewritten copy.

They included: 1. A football player who held a campus job during summer school and received pay for work he didn't perform. This happened in 1961.

2. A basketball player, holding an off-campus job, received a $75 advance from his employer and then dropped out of school before paying back the money.

3. A group of basketball players visiting the campus were given uniforms and permitted to practice with members of the university team, at times in presence of the coaches.

4. A football player was contacted at another institution without Iowa first contacting the athletic director of the other school.

The council frowned on these

Spring Hill, Laneburg Split Pair

Spring Hill senior boys defeated Laneburg 69 to 58 last Friday night, Jan. 3, at Laneburg. High scorers were: For Spring Hill, Dennis Polk 27; Gary Kidd 25. For Laneburg: B. Loe 19.

The Laneburg junior boys won out over Spring Hill 34 to 23, high scorers being: For Laneburg, D. Bullock 11; W. Almond 9. For Spring Hill, Ronnie Kidd 9.

acts but said, like a forgiving parent, that they "did not reflect any pattern and disregard for the governing rules of the association."

Centenary was accused of transporting prospective basketball players to the campus and back in a private company airplane in violation of the sanity code.

"It happened more than once," Byers said, but added that the school authorities had been most penitent and cooperative in the investigations.

Houston had its wrist slapped for transporting two football players to the campus in a private plane. This became a violation when the representative failed to accompany the prospects, who wound up not entering the school after all.

Alabama was censured and reprimanded because its coaches contacted a football player who was not enrolled at another school without notifying the other school's athletic director.

Alabama officials said it was a matter of misinterpretation of the words "student athlete" since the player in question had not competed at the other school but had entered merely to get proper credits.

Washington State was cautioned for a similar violation involving a track athlete. The punishment was lighter because Washington State reported the violation itself, Byers said.

The day's biggest surprise was the relaxation of sanctions against Indiana.

Under the move, Indiana athletes, previously barred from postseason activity and title events, were given permission to compete in any competition pointing to the Tokyo Olympics.

This opened the door for Indiana's fine squad of swimmers, including several record holders, basketball players, gymnasts and wrestlers.

Indiana is eligible to compete in the NCAA basketball tournament, from which it had been barred.

Kentucky Falls to Bottom

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's a long slide from the No. 1 college basketball ranking in the country to the bottom of the Southeastern Conference but Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats have completed the trip in less than a week.

Kentucky led the country in last week's Associated Press poll. Then the Wildcats ran into their first conference foe, Georgia Tech. The Engineers demolished the Wildcats and the loss dropped Kentucky to No. 2 in this week's poll. Monday night it was Vanderbilt and today the Wildcats find themselves peeking out of the conference basement with a 0-2 record.

John Ed Miller was the star for seventh-ranked Vanderbilt in an 85-83 thriller. His last second jump from 30 feet out won it. Roger Schurig led Vandy with 22 and Miller added 18. Terry Gibson's 19 topped the losers.

The game had been billed as a battle of SEC titans but instead it was a struggle to escape the conference cellar. Vanderbilt's opening league loss to Tennessee had left it tied with Kentucky in the basement but now the Wildcats are all alone. Well, almost alone. Kentucky does have some company. Tulane shares last place after dropping its 11th straight game, 87-83 to Georgia. Chances are Kentucky will break its cellar lease before its co-tenant does.

In other college conference play another pre-season favorite ran into trouble. Kansas State, a Big Eight power, ran up a 14-point bulge on Colorado with less than 12 minutes to play, then suddenly lost the range and eventually lost the game, 60-59.

Utah State handed Utah its second loss in thirteen starts, 84-72 in a nonconference clash. There were plenty of points in the Xavier of Ohio-Detroit game with Xavier winning 121-113.

South Carolina shot 60 per cent from the field and handed Maryland its first Atlantic Coast Conference setback 73-69. Texas Western grabbed a 77-72 decision over Arizona State.

In other major games, Northwestern downed Indiana 79-65, Michigan State clouted Wisconsin 106-90, Nebraska dumped Iowa State 55-52, Oklahoma State outscored Kansas 64-48, Missouri stopped Oklahoma 84-74, Furman beat Wake Forest 66-58, George Washington whipped Virginia Tech 96-89, The Citadel topped William and Mary 63-60, Mississippi slipped by Auburn 59-58, Mississippi State downed Alabama 69-56, Louisiana State whacked Florida 87-65 and Arizona knocked off Seattle 59-55.

Yank All-Stars Lose to Latins

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—The Latin American All-Stars broke loose for four runs in the bottom of the sixth inning and defeated the North American All-Stars 7-2 Monday in the 25th annual Winter League All-Star baseball game.

Walt Bond of the Houston Colts and Deacon Jones of the Chicago White Sox homered for the North Americans before a crowd of 6,183 at Hi Bithorn Stadium. Juan Pizarro of the White Sox was the winning pitcher and John Booser of the Philadelphia Philis was the loser.

UCLA Holds Jinx Post at Top of Heap

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Okay UCLA, it's your turn to face the jinx.

For the second week in a row a new team turns up at the top of the Associated Press basketball poll and UCLA hopes to stick around a bit longer than last week's leader, Kentucky.

The Wildcats lasted just one week after grabbing the top spot from Loyola of Chicago. Loyola led the poll from its first week but seemed to be struggling and finally slipped against Georgetown, D.C. Kentucky took over and ran into Georgia Tech. Now it's undefeated UCLA sitting on top.

The Bruins grabbed the top spot by polling 31 first place votes of the 41 cast by a panel of sports writers and broadcasters. Kentucky was favored by only two voters for the top spot but mustered enough points to outdistance Loyola of Chicago for the runner-up spot.

Points are awarded on the basis of 10 for each first place ballot, nine for second, etc.

Cincinnati dropped two of three on a Western trip last week and slipped from fourth to eighth. Michigan jumped one spot to fourth and undefeated Davidson climbed to fifth after being No. 7 last week.

Oregon State scrambled into sixth place ahead of Vanderbilt another upset victim last week. Villanova and Duke complete the listing.

The top ten with first place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. UCLA (31)	391
2. Kentucky (2)	322
3. Loyola (1)	308
4. Michigan (2)	264
5. Davidson (3)	238
6. Oregon State (2)	160
7. Vanderbilt	124
8. Cincinnati	104
9. Villanova	84
10. Duke	79

Patterson Wins; Seeks Title Fight

STOCKHOLM (AP)—"I'll never give up my hope for a chance to meet Sonny Liston again but I realize that maybe I don't deserve it yet. I want some more matches here first."

That was Floyd Patterson's reaction to his Monday night victory over Sante Amonti, the first short step on his comeback campaign after failing to survive the first round of two title bouts with Liston.

"I consider the victory a step on the road toward a new chance at the world heavyweight title," said Patterson, who stopped Amonti in 2:25 of the eighth round of a 10-round match after knocking him down three times.

Although Amonti is the heavyweight champion of Italy he is unranked in the world ratings. Patterson is the No. 8 contender.

In fact there was doubt that Amonti would be approved as an opponent. In 1961 he had been involved in an auto accident in which a woman was killed. At the trial the boxer reportedly told the judge he lost his eyesight for an instant just before the accident. The judge recommended that his driver's license be revoked and a new hearing is pending. However, the European Boxing Union approved the Italian as an opponent for the ex-champ.

The last knockdown in the eighth found Amonti reeling back and finally sitting on the bottom rope. He got up, tried to move and finally accepted the inevitable. The Italian opened his arms wide in a gesture of resignation, a familiar ending for a European bout.

Too Much Curve, the Batter Hits

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—Gary Peters of the Chicago White Sox, American League Rookie of the Year in 1963, is a pitcher with too big of a curve ball.

"That's his only weakness," said Sox pitching coach Ray Berres. "We've been working on cutting it down this winter. Gary has been working with our Sarasota team of the Florida Instructional League."

Southpaw Peters will be shooting for 20 victories this year after a rookie mark of 19-8. He has a 2.33 earned run average, struck out 189 and walked 68.

"That big curve is his only problem," Berres said. "It leaves the ball hanging there to be hit out of the park. Or it comes in sometimes and hits a batter's feet. We're cutting it down, so when he does throw a curve it will get over the plate. His slider still explodes up there. But his curve is so big a batter can anticipate it."

Peters thinks he can take some of the bigness out of his curve.

"I want it to break about one foot," he said. "It has been breaking two feet. But I won't know if I have it licked until I start throwing hard."

Peters won 11 games in a row in one stretch in compiling his 19 triumphs last year. But he slumped from Labor Day on and failed in four attempts to nail No. 20.

"My arm just got tired, and I didn't have any snap in my delivery," he said. "We had a lot of injuries to our starting pitchers late in the year and I worked several times with only two or three days rest. So did Juan Pizarro and he came up with a sore arm. Mine didn't get sore, but there wasn't much life left in it."

"After working on my curve and pick-off move to first base, I'm satisfied that I'll be a better pitcher. Iarring injury I should have a better year this time. Remember, I wasn't even a starting pitcher for the first month in 1963."

Kansas City A's Head for Kentucky

By CARL C. CRAFT
Associated Press Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Despite a blistering attack on his plan from other American League club owners, Charles O. Finley said today he is certain he will be permitted to transfer the Athletics from Kansas City to Louisville.

Finley said he would accept Gov. Edward T. Breathitt's invitation and would go before the Kentucky General Assembly at its opening session today in Frankfort "not to plead but to ask for their (the lawmakers) support."

"I think—no I'm confident—the fans here will give as much support, if not more, to major league baseball as those in Kansas City," said the Athletics' owner, putting the emphasis on the confident.

Finley said he was looking forward to the Jan. 16 meeting of the club owners — knowing that three negative votes would defeat his plan.

"I'm not concerned about how many votes it takes to knock something out," he said.

"I'm confident after I have met with them and explained my problems, there will be no difficulty in getting the votes needed."

Finley signed a contract with the State of Kentucky Monday to bring the Athletics to Louisville for the 1964 and 1965 seasons. The signing in Frankfort raised the ire of several of the American League club owners.

Under the pact with the state, the Athletics would play at the State Fairgrounds at Louisville. The state would get five per cent of net gate proceeds and

Santa Clara in Gift to Coach

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP)—University of Santa Clara football Coach Pat Malley was given a new $3,400 car Monday night—by his grateful players, not the alumni.

Malley has been at the Jesuit-run school for five years, and was named Northern California Coach of the Year for his team's 6-3 record in 1963.

New Hog in Game With Longhorns

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Sophomore J. D. McConnell enters the starting lineup tonight as the Arkansas Razorbacks try for their first conference victory against the University of Texas at Fayetteville.

McConnell, a 6-5 forward, will be one of three sophomores starting for the Porkers. The others are 6-5 forward John Talkington and 6-1 guard Ricky Sugg.

McConnell, who scored 15 points in the conference opener against Texas Tech Saturday, replaces senior Larry Hogue in the starting lineup.

The other Porker starters are 6-6 center Jim Magness and 6-1 guard Jim Jay.

Texas, which has a 7-3 season record, defeated Baylor 83-59 in its conference opener Saturday. The Longhorns will start 6-7 Joe Fisher and 6-8 John Paul Pultz at forward; 6-8 Mike Humphrey at center and 6-1 Jimmy Pur-7½ per cent of gross concession funds.

Finley said nothing was definite at the end of the two-year period about moving to other cities. The Athletics' owner and Kansas City officials have deadlocked over a new contract for lease of a stadium.

Paul Harney Takes L.A. Open Title

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Golfer Paul Harney, who thought he'd never win another tournament until he captured the $50,000 Los Angeles Open, is a fellow who thinks tournament golf is for the birds — and he doesn't mean golf birdsies.

Harney headed for his adopted home at Sunset Oaks near Sacramento, Calif. Tuesday, richer by $7,500 for his biggest victory after nine years on the tournament circuit.

The 34-year-old product of Worcester, Mass., shot an even par 71 for a 72-hole total of 280, four strokes under par for the distance, leaving behind the celebrated Arnold Palmer, U.S. Open champion Julius Boros and a few others who kept yipping at his heels but could never quite catch him in the final round.

Bobby Nichols was second, with a 71 for 281. Palmer, who could never get any closer than two shots of the front runner Monday afternoon, finished in a four-way tie for third at 282.

Palmer had a 70, his third and his lowest score of the tournament. Tied with Palmer were Bob Goalby, 67; Dow Finsterwald, 78, and Al Geiberger, 70. Dave Marr, with a 69, and Tommy Jacobs, 70, finished with 283, while Boros rallied with a 68 and a tie at 285.

The Porkers lost 93-84 to Texas Tech Saturday and have a 3-6 season record.
